CHAPTER 288.

AN ACT to amend section 1, of chapter 438, of the laws of 1885, relating to excise and the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending section 1554, R. S.

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 438, of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1885, is hereby amended so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 1. Section 1554, of the revised statutes of 1878, as amended by section 1, chapter 174, of the laws of 1881, and section 4, of chapter 322, of the laws of 1882, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: When any person shall by excessive drinking of intoxicating liquors, mispend, waste or lessen his estate so as to expose himself or family to want, or the town, city, village or county to which he belongs, to liability for the support of himself or family, or so as thereby to injure his health, endanger the loss thereof, or to endanger the personal safety and comfort of his family, or any member thereof, the wife of such person, the supervisors of such town, the aldermen of such city or trustees of such village, the county superintendent of the poor of such county, or any of them may, in writing, signed by her, him or them, forbid all persons licensed in accordance with the laws of this state, to sell or give away to such person, any ardent, spirituous or intoxicating liquors or drinks, for the space of one year, and in like manner may forbid the selling, furnishing or giving away of any such liquors, or drinks to such person, by any licensed person in any other town, city or village, to which such person may resort for the same. And the supervisors of any town, the aldermen of any city, or the trustees of any village, may by a notice made and signed as aforesaid, in like manner forbid all persons in such town, city or village, licensed as aforesaid, to sell or give away intoxicating liquors or drinks to any person given to the excessive use of such liquors or drinks, specifying such person, and such notice shall have the same force and effect when such specified person is a non-resident, as is herein provided, when such specified person is a resident of said town, city or village.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1887.
