CHAPTER 537.

AN ACT to provide for a settlement between the counties of Langlade, Forest and Oconto.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The judge of the tenth judicial circuit is hereby authorized and directed to appoint

Judge of the tenth circuit may appoint commissioners.

three commissioners, one from Langlade county, one from Forest county and one from the state at large, for the purpose of making a settlement of all assets and liabilities between Langlade and Forest counties, according to the provisions of section 10, of chapter 436, of the laws of 1885.

When to be appointed.

SECTION 2. The said judge shall appoint said commissioners on or before June 1, 1887, and at the time of making such appointment, he shall fix the compensation of such commissioners, one-half of which compensation shall be paid by each of said counties.

Report to be made and filed.

SECTION 3. The said commissioners shall make and file with the county clerk of each county their decision within three months from the date of their appointment and either county shall have the right to appeal from such decision to the circuit court by serving a written notice of appeal upon the chairman of the board of supervisors of the other county, within twenty days after the filing of the decision of said commissioners. And in case no such appeal is taken, the sum awarded by said commissioners against either county, shall be deemed a just claim against said county, to be collected as any other claim against a county.

Sum recovered by Forest county, how applied.

SECTION 4. In case any sum shall be recovered by Forest county, under the provisions of this act, it shall be applied first in payment of the Forest county indebtedness to Oconto county, of six hundred and fifty dollars, next to pay the bonds issued for the building of a court house in Forest county, then for the payment of any other county indebtedness; and any balance remaining shall be placed in the general fund.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 14, 1887.
