

said town for meeting such expense. The said county board shall thereupon cause such sum to be levied upon the taxable property of the county as will re-imburse said town for one-half of the cost and expense to it of constructing such bridge, which tax, when collected, shall be paid to the town treasurer of said town, and shall all be applied, as far as possible, in liquidation of any bonded indebtedness outstanding against said town on account of said bridge.

Any city within certain limits to possess powers herein granted to town, when?

SECTION 7. Any city whose corporate limits shall include that portion of the Menomonee river within one mile and a quarter of its mouth, lying south of the north line of this state, shall possess all the rights and powers herein granted to the town of Marinette, not inconsistent with the provisions of the act incorporating said city, and the common council, the mayor, clerk and treasurer of said city shall respectively have all the powers of, and do the acts herein prescribed to be done by the town board, the chairman of the town board, the town clerk, and the town treasurer of said town. If said city be incorporated, none of the provisions of this act shall apply to that portion of the town of Marinette (or to its officers), not within the limits of said city.

SECTION 8. This act shall be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 23, 1887.

[No. 43, S.]

[Published April 5, 1887.]

CHAPTER 92.

AN ACT for the suppression of houses of ill-fame, and to be made section 4589 (a) of the revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. If any person shall make oath before any justice of the peace or other officer authorized by law to issue a criminal warrant, that he has good reason to believe and does believe, that any house or other building is wilfully used as, and for a house of ill-fame for the purposes of prostitution, and that persons resort to the same for that purpose, such justice or other officer, whether the names of persons last mentioned are known to the complaint or not, shall issue a warrant commanding the sheriff or his deputy or any constable to enter into such house or building and to arrest all persons who shall there be found under circumstances which indicate that they have resorted to such building for the purpose of prostitution, and also the keeper of the same, and take into custody and keep the said persons, and bring them before the said justice or other officer, to be dealt with according to law; and any officer who may be charged with such warrant shall have power, if necessary, to break open doors for the purpose of executing the same, and may summon to his aid the power of the county.

Creating section 4589 (a) R. S. relating to suppression of houses of ill-fame.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts, conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication. Approved March 22, 1887.

[No. 113, S.]

[Published March 30, 1887.]

CHAPTER 93.

AN ACT to amend chapter 93, of the revised statutes, relating to mutual loan and building corporations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2009, chapter 93, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out the words, "but shall not exist for a longer term than twenty years," where they occur in said section, so as to read as follows: Section 2009. Any Amending section 2009, r. S.