CHAPTER 175.

AN ACT to amend sections 6 and 7, of chapter 56, of the private and local laws for the year 1887, entitled, "An act to amend chapter 16, of the private and local laws of Wisconsin for the year 1885," entitled, "An act to incorporate the city of Cedarburg," approved February 25th, 1885.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amendment to
sec. 6, ch. 56,
laws of 1887.

Street
sprinkling.

SECTION 1. Section 6, of chapter 56, of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1887, is hereby amended by adding after subdivision 38, at the end of said section, the following as subdivision 39: To cause the sprinkling of the streets or part of a street in said city, by resolution or ordinance of the common council to that effect, at the expense of the owners of the land or lots fronting such streets or part of a street per lineal foot, whenever desired by such owners representing in the aggregate a majority of the number of feet of such frontage of the street or part of a street, so that said section 6 will remain unchanged, except by the aforesaid addition to the same.

Amendment to
sec. 7, ch. 56.
Compensation.

SECTION 2. Section 7, of said chapter 56, is hereby amended by striking out the word, "two," where it occurs in the third and twelfth lines of said chapter, as published in volume 2, of the laws of 1887, and inserting in place thereof the word, "one," so that said section, when so amended, will read as follows, Section 7. Section 57, of said act is hereby amended by inserting after the word, "assessor," where it first occurs, the words, "and any one of the aldermen to be designated and appointed by the mayor;" and after the words, "clerk thereof," by inserting the following: "The members of said board shall receive such compensation as the common council may allow, and not less than three nor more than five dollars per day while in session," so that the said section will read as follows: Section 57. The mayor, clerk, treasurer and assessor, and any one of the aldermen to be designated and appointed by the mayor, shall constitute the city board of equalization, and shall meet on the first Monday of July in each year at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and shall proceed in all respects as town boards are, by law, required to proceed, as far as the same are applicable, revising, correcting and equalizing the assessment roll of the city; the mayor shall be president of the board, and the city clerk, clerk thereof. The members of said board shall receive such compensation as the common council may allow, and not less than three nor more than five dollars per day while in session. When the assessment roll shall have been completed, revised and corrected, it shall be filed with the clerk, and all changes of the assessment roll by the board of equalization shall be recorded by the clerk. Thereupon the common council shall, by resolution, levy such sum or sums of money as may be sufficient for the several purposes for which taxes are herein authorized to be levied; but not exceeding the authorized percentage, specifying the purposes for which the same are levied. All taxes and assessments, general or special, levied under this act, shall be and remain a lien upon the lands and tenements upon which they may be assessed, and on all personal property of any person or body politic, assessed for personal tax, from the delivery of the warrant for collection thereof until paid.

SECTION 3. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. Repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1889.
