CHAPTER 211.

AN ACT to amend sections 6 and 7, of chapter 305, of the laws 1887, entitled "An act to authorize the organization of local fire insurance companies in the cities and villages of this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Amending sec.
6 of chapter
305, laws of 1887, relating to local fire insurance companies.

SECTION 1. Section 6, of chapter 305, laws of 1887, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Such corporation may, at its annual meeting, or at a special meeting thereof, convened for that purpose, pursuant to its by-laws, by a majority of all the votes cast by its members present, in like manner as for the election of directors, authorize its board of directors to insure hotels, stores, groceries, offices and shops, and the contents of such buildings, school-houses, churches, and town, city and society halls; provided, however, that the amount of such risks taken upon such property within and upon any one building of the character mentioned in this section shall in no case exceed twenty-five hundred dollars, by this company, and such insurance shall, in all cases, be approved by three-fourths of the board of directors.

SECTION 2. Section 7, of said charter 305, laws of 1887, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Subject to the restrictions contained in said chapter, the board of directors may issue policies of insurance, signed by the president and secretary, agreeing in the name of the corporation to pay the insured all loss or damage of and to the property mentioned and described therein, to the amount named therein, which may be occasioned by fire and lightning, within the period named in said policy, which in no case shall be more than three years, and providing for such conditions of insurance as may be determined by the by-laws of such corporation, or by the resolutions of its annual meeting; and the said board of directors, or the corporation, may classify the property insured at the time of issuing policies thereon, under different rates, corresponding as near as may be to the greater or less risk from fire and loss which may attach to the several buildings or property insured. The board of directors may, however, delegate such authority to a committee of not less than three, at least two of whom shall be directors.

Same, sec. 7; policies, how issued.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 30, 1889.
