CHAPTER 274.

AN ACT to amend section 4719, of chapter 192, revised statutes, entitled, "of appeals, new trials and exceptions in criminal cases."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4719, of chapter 192, of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: Such petition or motion shall be signed by the defendant or his attorney and shall set forth specifically the grounds upon which the defendant will rely for a new trial, and the same shall be filed with the clerk of the court of the county in which the action was tried, at least twenty days before the argument of such motion; but the court may by order fix a shorter time. If the defendant desires to use any affidavit upon such motion, copies of the same shall be served upon the district attorney at least twenty days before the argument of the motion, so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows: Section 4719. The circuit court may, at the term in which the trial of any indictment or information shall be had, or within one year thereafter, and in either case, before or after judgment, on the petition or motion in writing of the defendant, grant a new trial for any cause for which by law a new trial may be granted, or when it shall appear to the court that justice has not been done, and on such terms or conditions as the court may direct. Such petition or motion shall be signed by the defendant or his attorney, and shall set forth specifically the grounds upon which the defendant will rely for a new trial, and the same shall be filed with the clerk of the court of the county in which the action was tried, at least twenty days before the argument of such motion; but the court may by order fix a shorter time. If the defendant desires to use any affidavits upon such motion, copies of the same shall be served upon the district attorney at least twenty days before the argument of the motion, or such shorter time as the court may by order designate.
