

Service upon such attorney shall be deemed sufficient service for all purposes upon the principal. When legal process against any such corporation is served upon the commissioner, he shall immediately notify the corporation of such service, by letter, prepaid and directed to its secretary, or, in case of a corporation of a foreign country, the resident manager, if any, in this country; and shall, within two days after such service, forward in the same manner a copy of the process served on him to such secretary or manager, or to any person previously designated by the corporation in writing. The plaintiff, for each process so served, shall pay to the commissioner, at the time of such service a fee of two dollars, which shall be recovered by him as a part of the taxable costs if he prevails in the suit. The commissioner shall keep a record of all process served on him, which record shall show the day and hour when such service was so made.

When process served on to notify company.

Fee of commissioner.

To keep record of process served.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 9, 1889.

[No. 109, A.]

[Published April 12, 1889.]

CHAPTER 336.

AN ACT to amend section 7, of chapter 464, of the laws of 1885, entitled "an act relating to elections, and the counting and preservation of ballots."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7, of chapter 464, of the laws of 1885, is hereby amended by adding to the end thereof the following words, to-wit: "Provided, that, if the office of county clerk is in dispute in said proceeding, and the occupant of said office be a candidate for re-election, he shall not act as one of the canvassers on such recount, but his place shall be filled by any reputable citizen and Amending sec. 7, ch. 464.

When county clerk not to act as commissioner on recount. Place how filled.

elector of such county, who is not a candidate for office at such election, who shall be selected by the other two members of such board of canvassers."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 9, 1889.

[No. 402, S.]

[Published April 11, 1889.]

CHAPTER 337.

AN ACT for the appointment of a register in probate for Dodge county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Register in probate, Dodge county.

SECTION 1. The county judge of the county of Dodge may appoint from time to time, subject to removal, a competent person to record the proceedings of the county court of Dodge county, and the person so appointed shall be officially styled and known as "register in probate." Such register in probate shall before entering upon the duties of the office take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same with the clerk of the circuit court for the county of Dodge, and shall execute to the county of Dodge a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with two or more sureties to be approved by said county judge conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required by law to be performed by such register in probate, which bond with the approval endorsed thereon shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county of Dodge.

Duties of.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of such register in probate, to record all wills admitted to probate by the county court of Dodge county, all letters testamentary, letters of administration, letters of guardianship, orders, judgments and decrees granted or made by such county court, and all proceedings and matters required by law to be