CHAPTER 346.

AN ACT to enable members of the Methodist Episcopal church or of annual conferences to form an insurance corporation and to regulate the same.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any number of persons, not less than nine, who are residents of this state, and regular members of the Methodist Episcopal church, or of an annual conference of said church, may form a corporation for the purpose of insuring, upon the plan of mutual insurance, church and parsonage property against loss or damage by fire, lightning or other casualties. The first nine persons signing the articles of organization shall be directors of the corporation until the first annual meeting, or until others are elected, and shall possess the usual powers of such corporations for the purposes mentioned. The articles of organization having been filed with the commissioner of insurance and proof that policies in the requisite number and amount have been applied for shall be examined by the attorney general, and, if found in conformity with law, the commissioner shall issue his certificate that said corporation is duly organized and is entitled to do business under the laws of this state.

Members of Methodist Episcopal church may organize mutual insurance corporation.

Articles to be filed with commissioner.

SECTION 2. Such corporation, in addition to the powers granted by chapter 85, of the revised statutes, shall have power:

Powers of.

1st. To make contracts of insurance in this state and elsewhere with any church, board of
