

such estates, and with the care and management of the estate of such minor, insane or incompetent person, as the case may require, until administration or letters of guardianship thereon shall, upon proper application of some person entitled to apply therefor, be granted to some other person. If such intestate, testator, or minor, insane or incompetent person be a non-resident, administration or guardianship of his estate shall be granted to the public administrator of the county where the property may be found. Such administration or guardianship may be revoked at any time, upon the appointment and qualification of an administrator or guardian, upon application of any person lawfully entitled to apply therefor, or when for any other cause the court shall deem it just or expedient; but such revocation shall not impair the public administrator's rights to receive from the estate his legal charges and disbursements, to be determined by the county court. Such estates shall be administered by the public administrator in the same manner as other estates, except as otherwise provided herein.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 11, 1889.
