each, for every regular session, and ten dollars per diem for each special session, and fifty dollars for opening each session, which shall be in full for all services rendered. The other officers and employes of the senate and assembly shall receive pay per diem as follows: The sergeant-at-arms, the assistant clerks, bookkeepers and assistant bookkeepers five dollars each; the proof-readers, engrossing, enrolling, transcribing and index clerks, the clerk of the joint committee on claims, and the clerk of the judiciary committee of each house, the assistant sergeant-at-arms and the postmaster, and document room attendant, four dollars each; the messengers two dollars each; the general attendant for the assembly chamber, and all other committee clerks, three dollars and fifty cents each, and all other clerks and employes three dollars each. The copyists shall be paid one dollar per day, from the date of their employment and fifteen cents per folio for enrolling and ten cents per folio for engrossing; the term "folio" meaning one hundred words, "full count," and only upon accepted work. Every clerk or employe in the chief clerk's or sergeant-at-arms' force, shall assist when required at any other work in the department than that to which he is regularly assigned, when the good of the service can be promoted thereby. No per diem shall be allowed after the close of the session, except for two days to the transcribing and index clerks, each, whose duty it shall be within that time to satisfactorily and fully complete the indexing and transcribing of the Journal, and in case such work is not so completed, a sufficient sum shall be reserved from the pay of the clerk who may make the default, to insure the completion of his work. The chief clerk and sergeant-at-arms of each house shall certify to the secretary of state the names of all persons employed in their respective departments, the capacity employed in, and the amounts respectively due them, which certificate shall be certified to by the presiding officer of the house in which they are employed. Upon such certificates, the accounts of the persons named herein shall be audited, and paid out of the state treasury. At the close of each session of the legislature, the secretary of state shall publish in the official state paper, a full list of the accounts so audited.

SECTION 2. This act shall apply to the session of 1891, from the commencement thereof, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
