

low dock, mustard, wild parsnip, or sweet clover, standing or growing on any lands owned or controlled by him or them, or upon any highway, lane or alley adjoining such lands as far as the center of such highway, lane or alley, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to destroy, or cause to be destroyed, all such weeds. He shall spend as many days at such work of destruction as the chairman of the town board, president of the village, or mayor of the city may deem necessary and for each day so spent shall receive the sum of two dollars upon presentation of his account therefor, verified by his oath, and specifying by separate items the amount against each piece of land, describing the same; and the several amounts shall be placed in the next tax roll in a separate column headed, "For destruction of weeds," as a tax upon the lands upon which such weeds were destroyed, and be collected as other taxes.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 12, 1893.

No. 530, A.]

[Published April 15, 1893.

CHAPTER 146.

AN ACT to provide for the payment into the county treasury of the fines received by justices of the peace and other magistrates.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is hereby made the duty of every justice of the peace, police justice, municipal judge or other magistrate, who receives any fine or fines authorized to be received by section 4772, of the Revised Statutes, to enter the amount so received, with the date when received, upon the docket or other record required by law to be kept by him.

Justice, etc. to enter fines on docket.

Docket to be inspected.

SECTION 2. The chairman of every town, the supervisor of each ward in every city, and the supervisor of every village, shall personally inspect the docket of every justice, police justice, municipal judge, or other magistrate, receiving fines under section 4772, of the Revised Statutes, whose office is located within the town, ward or village represented by such chairman or supervisor, on or before the first day of November of each year, and ascertain therefrom the amount of such fines received by said justices, police justices, municipal judges, or other magistrates during the preceding year ending October 31. It is further provided that said chairman or supervisors shall make a separate report in writing for each such officer to the county board, which report shall be verified by his affidavit and shall embrace the title of each case in which any such fine was received, the date of conviction and the amount of fine received during the year covered by said report.

Report.

Examination of accounts.

SECTION 3. The county board of every county, at its annual meeting, shall compare the reports, required of its members by this chapter, with the written reports made by justices, police justices, municipal judges and other magistrates to county treasurers, in pursuance of section 4772, of the Revised Statutes.

Justice, etc. may be prosecuted.

SECTION 4. The district attorney of each county shall, by direction of the county board thereof, prosecute any justice, police justice, municipal judge, or other magistrate, who shall fail to comply with the requirements of section 4772, of the Revised Statutes, or shall neglect or refuse to make the entries in his docket or other records, as provided in this chapter, or who shall neglect or refuse to submit his docket or other record for inspection, as herein provided.

Penalty.

SECTION 5. Every justice of the peace, police justice, municipal judge, or other magistrate, who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to a fine not to exceed fifty dollars for each offense.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 12, 1893.