CHAPTER 200.

AN ACT to amend section 3, chapter 240, of the laws of the state of Wisconsin for the year 1880, entitled "An act to prohibit unauthorized companies and agents from transacting the business of insurance in this state, and relating to the department of insurance.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amend sec. 3
ch. 240, laws of 1880.

SECTION 1. Section 3, of chapter 240, of the laws of the state of Wisconsin for the year 1880, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3. No corporation transacting the business of fire insurance in this state, not incorporated by the laws of this state, shall write, or cause to be written, any policy of insurance on property located in this state, except through a duly authorized agent of such corporation, who shall reside within this state, and who shall be licensed by the commissioner of insurance, according to law. Foreign fire insurance company to transact business through resident agent

Subdivision 1. Any company or corporation violating the provisions of said section 3, as amended, upon notice and satisfactory proof thereof being made to the commissioner of insurance, shall have its or their authority to transact business in the state of Wisconsin revoked for a period of not less than ninety days. Any insurance company, whose license to do business in the state of Wisconsin may be so revoked by the commissioner of insurance, shall not be again permitted to do business in the state until all taxes and penalties due on said conviction shall have been paid, together with any expenses that may be due under the provisions of this section, to the commissioner of insurance of the state of Wisconsin, and such company shall only be readmitted to do business in the state of Wisconsin upon a complete recompliance with the laws then in force in regard to the admission of insurance companies to do business in the state of Wisconsin. License, when to be revoked.

Subdivision 2. When notice of any violation of said section 3, as amended, is received by the commissioner of insurance, it shall be his duty, forthwith in person or by deputy to visit the office of such company or companies, where such contract may have been written or made, and demand an inspection of the books and records of such company or companies. Any company refusing to exhibit its or their books and records for his inspection, shall be deemed guilty of violating the provisions of said section 3, as amended, and the penalties provided by subdivision 1, of said section 3, shall be immediately enforced against such company or companies by the commissioner of insurance. Duty of commissioner.

Subdivision 3. The commissioner of insurance shall receive as a compensation for the services rendered under the provisions of this section, his necessary traveling expenses, Compensation.

and ten dollars per diem, which sum shall be charged against the company or companies so found guilty by him, and collected from such company or companies. In case such company or companies be found not guilty, the necessary traveling expenses shall be paid out of any funds in the hands of the commissioner of insurance under the provisions of section 6, of said chapter 240, of the laws of 1880.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 17, 1893.
