

No. 449, A.]

[Published April 26, 1893.]

CHAPTER 230.

AN ACT to authorize persons and corporations engaged in manufacturing to indemnify each other for losses by fire to their manufacturing plants and the products thereof on the Lloyds principle.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Persons, etc., engaged in manufacturing, how may indemnify each other.

SECTION 1. Authority is hereby given to persons and corporations, either wholly residents of Wisconsin, or partly residents of Wisconsin and partly of adjoining states, to make and enter into agreements between themselves to indemnify each other for any losses arising from fire to their manufacturing plants or to the unsold products thereof, on such terms, in such manner, and in such proportions and in such amounts, and during such terms of time, as may be agreed upon between them in writing; and for the purpose of the convenient transaction of such business, and the speedy payment of such losses, they may appoint an agent or attorney to act for them, or each of them, in the said matters, and may pay in and accumulate a fund for the payment of such losses and of the expenses of the business.

Service of process.

SECTION 2. Before transacting any such business, they shall appoint an agent or attorney resident of Wisconsin, on whom all process or papers concerning the said business or growing out of the same, may be served, and such service shall be deemed equivalent to personal service on all such persons and corporations; such appointment shall be in writing, and be filed with the insurance commissioner of this state.

Office, where located.

SECTION 3. Such persons and corporations shall, at all times, publicly maintain an office in some city of over ten thousand inhabitants, in the state of Wisconsin, and all such business shall be transacted at such office, and each of the said persons and corporations so making or signing such contracts of indemnity, by themselves or their agents, shall be severally, but not jointly, liable thereon for their proportionate amount of the said indemnity as in such contract stated, and shall not be liable otherwise or for any greater sum. Liability of parties.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 17, 1893.

No. 367, A.]

[Published April 26, 1893.

CHAPTER 231.

AN ACT to provide for printing an additional number of the reports of the state board of health.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The secretary of state shall cause to be printed six thousand copies of each of the biennial reports of the state board of health, in addition to the number now required by law, beginning with the report for the biennial period ending September 30, 1892. Five hundred copies of each of said reports shall be bound singly in cloth; all others singly in paper. Additional reports of state board of health.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts, contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 17, 1893.