CHAPTER 301.

AN ACT to amend section 2, of chapter 33, of the laws of 1893, entitled "An act to create and establish a superior court in and for Douglas county," and re-enacting said chapter 33.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2, of chapter 33, of the laws of the state of Wisconsin, for the year 1893, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "county," and before the word "and," where the same occur in said section, the words "except murder," so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows: Section 2. Said superior court shall have and may exercise powers and jurisdiction, concurrent and equal with the circuit court of said Douglas county, in all cases of crimes and misdemeanors arising in said county, except murder, and appellate jurisdiction of all crimes and misdemeanors, tried before the judge of the municipal court or justices of the peace in said county, in the same manner as is now provided by law for appeals to the circuit court in such cases. Said superior court shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction in all cases of appeal from the municipal and justices courts in said county, in all civil actions and in all actions commenced in said courts, where an answer shall be put in showing that the title to lands will come in question, all of which cases shall be certified and all official returns made to said superior court in the
