CHAPTER 57.

AN ACT to prevent oppressive garnishment and the transferring of claims for the purpose of depriving debtors of their exemption rights.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1: Whoever, whether principal, agent or attorney, with intent thereby to deprive any bona fide resident of the state of Wisconsin of his or her rights, under the statutes of Wisconsin on the subject of the exemption of property from levy and sale on execution, or in attachment or garnishment, sends or causes to be sent out of the state of Wisconsin any claim for debt to be collected by proceedings in attachment, garnishment, or other mesne process when the creditor, debtor or person, or corporation owing for the earnings intended to be reached by such proceedings in attachment are, each and all within the jurisdiction of the courts of the state of Wisconsin, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined for each and every claim so sent, in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

Exemption rights, sending claims to another state for garnishment in order to avoid.

Penalty.

SECTION 2. Whoever, either direct y or indirectly, assigns or transfers any claim for debt against a citizen of Wisconsin for the purpose of having the same collected by proceedings in attachment, garnishment, or other process, out of the wages or personal earnings of the debtor, in courts outside of the state of Wisconsin when the creditor, debtor, person or corporation owing the money intended to be reached by the proceedings in attachment are each and all within the jurisdiction of the courts of the state of Wisconsin, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars, nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

Exemption rights, transferring claims in order to avoid.

Penalty.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1893.
