CHAPTER 220.

AN ACT to amend section 2, of chapter 183, of the laws of 1880, entitled, "An act to provide for the appointment of a register in probate for Milwaukee county," as amended by chapter 553, of the laws of 1887.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Register in probate act for Milwaukee county, amended.

SECTION 1. Section 2, of said chapter 183, of the laws of 1880, as amended by chapter 553, of the laws of 1887, is hereby amended by striking out the words "twelve hundred" where they appear in said section, and inserting in lieu thereof, the words "fourteen hundred;" and also by striking out the words "one thousand" where they appear in said section, and inserting in lieu thereof, the words "twelve hundred," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 2. The county judge may appoint an assistant register of probate of said court whenever the business may require it; such assistant register shall take a like oath and give a like bond as required of said register of probate. . He shall hold his office during the pleasure of the county judge. In the absence of the register of probate from his office, the assistant register may perform all the duties of the register of probate, with such exceptions and limitations as may be fixed by the county judge. The salary of the assistant register of probate shall be fixed by the county judge of said county at a sum not greater than fourteen hundred dollars, in proportion to amount of services it may be necessary for him to render and be payable monthly at the end of each and every month. He shall receive no fees of office or other compensation than his salary. Nothing in this act shall be construed as prohibiting the county judge of Milwaukee county from drawing any papers or giving any counsel in probate matters or proceeding in which there is no contest involved; provided, such judge shall receive for such service no fees or other compensation than his salary now provided by law. The county judge may, whenever the business of the office requires it, appoint a clerk or clerks at a salary not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum for each, and the amount necessarily expended therefor, shall be paid monthly at the end of each and every month, out of the treasury of said county.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 15, 1895.
