

corporations are located admit the mutual corporations of this state. Lloyds, individual underwriters, and fire associations, other than stock or mutual corporations, may be admitted by complying in all respects with the laws applicable to fire insurance corporations organized under the laws of any foreign government. The commissioner of insurance before issuing a license for the admission of any corporation or association shall make a personal examination of the affairs and financial condition of such corporation or association and if found to meet the conditions and requirements of the law shall issue such certificate of admission.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 19, 1895.

No. 358, A.]

[Published May 4, 1895.

CHAPTER 326.

AN ACT to amend and enlarge the charter of Nashotah House, created by an act of the territorial legislature, approved February 4th, 1847.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Nashotah
House cemetery association legalized.

SECTION 1. The charter of Nashotah House, created by an act of the territory of Wisconsin and entitled, "An act to incorporate Nashotah House," approved February 4th, 1847, is hereby amended and enlarged as follows: The trustees of Nashotah House and their successors shall hereafter have, possess and exercise all the powers and shall be subject to all the duties of cemetery associations as granted, and as provided in the following enactments of the legislature of this state, viz.: In section 1447 of the revised statutes as amended by chapter 42, laws of 1882; chapter 165, laws of 1885, and chapter 167, laws of 1889; in sections 1 and 3, chapter 388, laws of 1887; in sections 1448 and 1449 of the revised statutes; in sections 1, 2 and 3, of chapter 115, laws of 1887; and in section 1453 of the revised statutes; in sections 1, 2 and 3, chapter 315, laws of 1887; in section 1455, revised statutes, as amended by chapter 216, laws of 1887; in section 1263, revised statutes, and section 1038, as amended by sections 2000 and 3251 of the revised statutes, and in chapter 290, laws of 1883; provided, however, that any conveyance of a lot for a single grave may be by gift.

SECTION 2. The tract of land situated in Waukesha county, Wisconsin, heretofore dedicated by Nashotah House as a burial ground, and now used as such, shall, with any future enlargement thereof, constitute the cemetery to be held and occupied by the trustees of Nashotah House under this act.

Location of the cemetery in Waukesha county.

SECTION 3. On or before the first day of January, 1897, the trustees of Nashotah House shall cause to be made a survey of said tract of land so dedicated as aforesaid, and shall cause a chart or map to be made from such survey, on which chart or map shall be indicated the single grave without any right by deed or prescription or otherwise to the relatives of the deceased whose body has been interred in said grave to any land for other burials; and also the grounds held by deed, prescription or otherwise for burial purposes, giving the metes and bounds of such grounds and stating to whom they have been dedicated.

Map of the cemetery grounds to be made.

SECTION 4. Such survey and such chart or map shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds of Waukesha county on or before the first day of January, 1897. At the same time there shall be so filed by the trustees of Nashotah House a declaration showing the terms, conditions or prescription by which each single grave and each burial lot or ground is held.

Chart or map to be filed in the register of deeds office.

All rights to burial lots shall be deemed to be determined by the terms of declaration.

SECTION 5. All rights of burial and all rights to burial lots acquired in said tract of land so dedicated as aforesaid, on or before the filing of said declaration, shall be deemed to be defined and determined by the terms of said declaration as modified by this act, unless any claimant shall, in an action commenced in a court of this state of competent jurisdiction, within five years thereafter, have his rights otherwise adjudicated.

Intent and object of this act.

SECTION 6. The intent and object of this act is to authorize and empower the trustees of Nashotah House to hold the said tract of land dedicated as aforesaid, and any enlargement of the same, for cemetery purposes, under and pursuant to the provisions of the enactments and statutes of this state hereinbefore mentioned and referred to, and of this act for a burial place for persons connected with Nashotah House as trustees, faculty, students and alumni, or as friends and benefactors, and for the families and descendants of such friends and benefactors; subject, however, to the sole and exclusive discretion and direction of said trustees acting in their corporate capacity as to the persons to whom rights of interment and to family burial lots shall be given or granted.

Rights of future interment determined by the provisions of this act.

SECTION 7. All rights of future interment in family burial places acquired in said tract of land so dedicated as aforesaid before the first day of January, 1897, to be determined by the provisions of this act.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 19, 1895.