CHAPTER 46.

AN ACT to authorize the supervisors of the town of Lowville, Columbia county, Wisconsin, to alter, change and discontinue a portion of the territorial road known as the road laid from Jefferson, in Jefferson county, to Fort Winnebago, in Columbia county, within the limits of township number eleven (11) north, range number ten (10) east, in the county of Columbia, Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Authorized to discontinue or alter territorial road.

SECTION 1. The supervisors of the town of Lowville, in the county of Columbia, Wisconsin, are hereby authorized and permitted to alter, change and discontinue a portion of the territorial road known as the territorial road laid from Jefferson, in Jefferson county, to Fort Winnebago, in Columbia county, running through section number one (1) and within the limits of township number eleven (11) north, range number ten (10) east, in the county of Columbia and state of Wisconsin, in the same manner and with like effect as is provided for by the provisions of section 1265, of Sanborn and Berryman's annotated statutes of the state of Wisconsin, provided for the alteration and change of roads other than state roads.

Statutes quoted not to prevent.

SECTION 2. Nothing contained in the provisions of sections 1265 and 1300 of Sanborn and Berryman's annotated statutes of the state of Wisconsin shall be construed so as to prevent or prohibit the alteration, change and discontinuance of that portion of said territorial road in the manner provided by section number one of this act.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1895.
