CHAPTER 62.

AN ACT to amend chapter 312, of the laws of 1893, entitled, An act to amend chapter 326, of the general laws of 1889, entitled, "An act dividing cities into classes and providing for their incorporation and government."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Districts containing 1,500 may incorporate.

SECTION 1. Section 2, of chapter 312, laws of 1893, is hereby amended by striking out the words "two thousand," in the fourth line of said section, and inserting the words "fifteen hundred," so that said section 2, chapter 312, of the laws of 1893, when so amended, will read as follows: Section 2. Any district containing a population of fifteen hundred or over, and not heretofore incorporated as a city, may become incorporated under this act in the manner heretofore specified.

SECTION 2. Section 3, of chapter 312, laws of 1893, is hereby amended by striking out the words "two thousand" where they appear in said section 3, and inserting the words "fifteen hundred," so that said section 3, chapter 312, of the laws of 1893, when so amended, will read as follows: Section 3. One hundred or more electors and taxpayers of any village, incorporated or unincorporated under the laws of this state, may apply, by petition, to the trustees of such village or to the proper town board of supervisors, to have the question of incorporating said village, or the same and adjacent territory, containing a population of not less than fifteen hundred, as a city, submitted to a vote of the electors of the territory described in such petition; provided, that in case it is proposed to include territory adjacent to such village, the consent, in writing, of a majority of the electors residing therein, and the owners of at least one-third of the taxable property in such territory, according to the last assessment roll, shall be presented with said petition.

How incorporation may be effected.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 21, 1895.
