

effect and operation of said chapter 7, laws of 1895, except section 2, thereof, until the first Monday in May, 1895, anything in said chapter 7, laws of 1895, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved Feb. 26, 1895.

No. 7, S.]

[Published March 1, 1895.

CHAPTER 9.

AN ACT to amend section 2732, of the revised statutes of Wisconsin for the year 1878, relating to undertakings on attachments.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Undertaking, and what to contain.

SECTION 1. Section 2732, of the revised statutes of 1878 is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words, to-wit: "Provided, that no undertaking shall be necessary in any action wherein the state of Wisconsin or any county, town or other municipality shall be plaintiff," so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 2732. Before the writ of attachment shall be executed, a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient surety, shall be delivered to the officer, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, the plaintiff shall pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain, by reason of the writ of attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which sum shall not be less than two hundred and fifty dollars. The surety shall justify his responsibility, by affidavit, annexed justify.

Surety to

to such undertaking, stating that he is a resident, and householder or freeholder, within the state, and is worth the sum specified in the undertaking, in property within the state, over and above all his debts, and exclusive of all property exempt from execution. Provided, that no undertaking shall be necessary in any action wherein the state of Wisconsin or any county, town or other municipality shall be plaintiff.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved Feb. 27, 1895.

No. 15, S.]

[Published March 1, 1895.

CHAPTER 10.

AN ACT directing the state treasurer to refund certain moneys, paid as penalty, to Washburn county, Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. "Whereas, By reason of the closing of the doors of the Shell Lake Savings Bank, the 7th day of June, 1893, the county of Washburn was deprived of the use of its funds, being a depositor of said bank;" and,

"Whereas, The state tax payable from said county of Washburn to the state of Wisconsin, for the year of 1892, was among the funds so deposited by said county in said bank;" and,

"Whereas, By reason of the suspension of said bank, the said county was unable to pay said tax to the state when it became due;" and,

County deprived of its funds.

State tax tied up.