CHAPTER 163.

AN ACT to authorize the appointment of assistant city attorneys in cities of the first and second class, as defined by section 1, of chapter 312, of the laws of Wisconsin for 1893, whether such city be incorporated by special act of the legislature or under the general laws of the state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appointment of assistant city attorneys authorized in cities of the first and second class.

SECTION 1. The city attorney of each city in this state of the first class or second class, as defined by chapter 312, of the laws of Wisconsin for 1893, whether such city be incorporated by special act of the legislature or under the general laws of the state, is hereby authorized, on or before the first day of July, 1897, or the first day of July in the year next following the first national or state census, showing such city to belong to either said first or second class, and every four years from said July first thereafter, to appoint a special assistant in the law department of such city, who shall be known as the special assistant city attorney, who shall hold his office for the term of four (4) years, and until his successor shall have been appointed and have qualified. It shall be the duty of such special assistant city attorney to draw all the pleadings and try all such cases to which such city may be a party, as shall be assigned to him by the city attorney. He shall also aid and assist the city attorney in other matters pertaining to the law department of such city when called upon by him so to do, and for his services the said special assistant city attorney shall receive an annual salary of thirty-six hundred (3600) dollars, payable in like manner as the salary of other city officers in such city are paid. In case of a vacancy in the office of said special assistant city attorney, said vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the city attorney for the unexpired term. The said city attorney is also authorized to appoint such assistants not now provided for by law, from time to time, as the common council of such city may by ordinance provide. The assistants so appointed shall hold their office for the length of time and shall receive the salaries and perform such duties as shall be fixed and provided in the ordinance authorizing such appointment.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 1, 1897.
