CHAPTER 159.

AN ACT authorizing the adjutant general to audit outstanding accounts against certain companies of the Wisconsin National Guard, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Allowance for 1898 to be paid certain companies.

SECTION 1. The adjutant general is hereby authorized to audit vouchers for the payment of the annual allowance for 1898, not already paid, for the companies that constituted the Third Regiment and companies "D", "E", "G" and "H" of the Fourth Regiment of the Wisconsin National Guard, provided that said companies shall reorganize and re-enter the Wisconsin National Guard within thirty days after the passage and publication of this act.

Accounts of certain companies in service of U. S. in 1898, to be paid under certain conditions.

SECTION 2. The adjutant general is hereby authorized to audit the outstanding accounts of the companies of the Wisconsin National Guard which entered the service of the United States in 1898, and have since failed and shall fail for thirty days after the passage of this act to reorganize and re-enter the service of the state. Said accounts shall be audited by the adjutant general and when approved by the governor shall be paid in the order of their presentation, provided that the total amount paid for any one company shall not exceed the annual allowance of such company for the year 1898 had it remained in the Wisconsin National Guard.

Appropriation.

SECTION 3. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the treasury of the state of Wisconsin, not otherwise appropriated, a sufficient sum to carry out the provisions of this act.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 12, 1899.
