CHAPTER 320.

AN ACT to authorize Abbie Sherry and Frank T. Russell of Neenah, Wisconsin, to build and maintain dams across the Flambeau river in township forty north, of range one west, in the county of Price and state of Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Location of dams.

SECTION 1. Abbie Sherry and Frank T. Russell, of Neenah, Wisconsin, and their successors and assigns, are hereby authorized to build and maintain a dam across the Flambeau river on lots four and five of section thirteen, and lot three of section twenty-four of township forty north, of range one west of the fourth principal meridian; and also, another dam across the Flambeau river from lot six of section twenty-five, town forty north, range one west of the fourth principal meridian, to lot one of section twenty-five, same town and range; and to make use of the hydraulic power furnished by each of said dams.

Height of dams.

SECTION 2. Said dams shall not exceed in height, the height of the dams now built and maintained on said lands, nor shall the same set the water back any further, or have any greater flowage than the dams now existing at said points.

Dams not to be obstructions.

SECTION 3. Said dams shall be so constructed, maintained and operated as not to obstruct or impede the running of logs, lumber, timber and other floatage down said river, and each of same shall be provided with a suitable slide therein for the passage of logs, lumber, timber and other floatage past same.

Application of chapter 146.

SECTION 4. Chapter 146 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, commonly called "The Mill Dam Law," shall be and is hereby declared to be applicable to the dams hereinbefore authorized, and to any dams which may be maintained by virtue of this act.

SECTION 5. The power to alter or repeal this act is hereby reserved.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 2, 1899.

CHAPTER 321.

AN ACT to amend section 1797 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, to provide for traveling expenses of railroad commissioner and his deputies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1797 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the word "salary" where it occurs in the seventh line thereof, and inserting in lieu of the words so stricken out the following: "all expenses incurred by himself and his deputies in the performance of their duties. The accounts for all payments authorized by this section shall be audited by the secretary of state pursuant to law," so that said section when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 1797. Such commissioner shall keep his office at the capitol, and shall be provided with a suitable room, necessary office furniture, books and maps, and may, when necessary, take to his aid experts

All expenses of commissioner and deputies to be paid.
