CHAPTER 47.

AN ACT to amend section 94t, of the revised statutes of 1898, relating to judicial election.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Judicial elections to be conducted same as general elections.

SECTION 1. Section 94t of the revised statutes of 1898, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 94t. Elections for justices of the supreme court, circuit, county and municipal judges shall be notified, held and conducted and the results canvassed and returned in the same manner as at general elections. The ballots therefor shall be printed, furnished and distributed by the county clerks at the expense of the county as other official ballots are distributed, so prepared as to indicate the candidates or the nominees to be voted for and the respective judicial office for which each is intended as a ballot substantially in the form prescribed in section 38. All votes given for any such officer shall be put in a ballot box, separate from that used for any other election on the same day. The polls of election for such officers shall open and close at the same time that the polls are opened and closed for the election of other officers who are voted for at the same time and place, or if no other officers are then being voted for they shall open and close at the same time at which they would be opened and closed, in the locality in which they are located at any general election. Within a like time as prescribed for the county canvass after a general election, a board of county canvassers shall be convened, who shall canvass the statements received from the several polls in the county and make a statement thereof, and return the same including the votes for the office of county judge, as at a general election and they shall determine who is elected to the office of county judge, and the county clerk shall give him a certificate thereof. The board of state canvassers shall be convened on or before the fifteenth day of May, to canvass the statements of votes received for justice of the supreme court or circuit judge in like manner and shall have the powers and perform the duties in relation thereto, so far as applicable, as prescribed in respect to the canvass for state officers. And all the provisions of law respecting the qualifications of voters, the conduct of elections and the canvass and return of votes at general elections, shall be applicable to elections held under this chapter.

Canvass of votes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 48.

AN ACT to amend section 1458a of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 relating to state board of agriculture.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1458a of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by adding after the words "state fairs" where they occur in the fourth line of said section, the words "and state fair grounds," so that said section 1458a when so amended shall read as follows: Said board may occupy such rooms in the capitol as may be assigned for that purpose by the governor. They shall have sole control of the affairs of the department of agriculture, and of all state fairs, and state fair grounds, and may make such by-laws, rules and regulations in relation to the management of the business of such department and said fairs and the offering of premiums thereat as they shall from time to time determine. The board shall make a report of their action to the governor on or before the first day of December in each even-numbered year.

Given control of state fair grounds.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force after its passage and publication.
