

[No. 52, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5.

Whereas, An Allwise Providence has removed from the busy scenes of life to the beautiful beyond, one of Wisconsin's noblest sons, the Hon. John T. Kingston, of Necedah, Wisconsin, a man who has served his people long, faithfully and well, both as public officer and private citizen, who has served his district five terms in the senate and three terms as member of the assembly discharging his duty with credit to himself and honesty to his constituents, who has won the esteem and confidence of all who knew him, and being desirous of testifying to his worth and the esteem in which he is held by his colleagues in his official life, therefore be it

Resolved, by the Senate the Assembly concurring, that in the death of Mr. Kingston, the state has lost a just and upright citizen whose record in official and private life was without blemish, and whose service to the state was of the most valuable character, and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be suitably engrossed and forwarded to the family of the deceased.
