CHAPTER 152.

AN ACT to amend sections 3075 and 3088 of the statutes of 1898, relating to ejectments.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Occupant to be made defendant. SECTION 1. Amend section 3075 of the statutes of Wisconsin by adding to the end of said section the following: "or against the person in whom any title appears of record in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county in which said premises are located, at the commencement of the action;" so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 3075. If the premises for which the action is brought are actually occupied by any person, such actual occupant shall be made defendant in complaint; if they are not so occupied, the action must be brought against some person exercising acts of ownership on the premises claimed, or claiming title thereto or some interest therein, at the commencement of the action, or against the person in whom the title appears of record in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county in which said premises are located, at the commencement of the action.

Judgment to be conclusive. SECTION 2. Section 3088 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by adding to said section the following: "and every purchaser whose conveyance is not recorded or filed, shall be deemed to have acquired his title after the filing of such notice, and shall be bound by the proceedings in the action to the same extent and in the same manner as if he were a party thereto;" so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 3088. Every judgment rendered in any such action shall be conclusive as to the title established therein, upon the party against whom it is rendered and upon all persons claiming from, through or under him by title accruing after the filing of a notice of the pendency of the action in the office of the proper register of deeds, subject to the exceptions hereinafter contained; and every purchaser whose conveyance is not recorded or filed shall be deemed to have acquired his title after the filing of such notice, and shall be bound by the proceedings in the action to the same extent and in the same manner as if he were a party thereto.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

AN ACT to amend section 696 of the statutes of 1898, relating to the fees and mileage of county judges, court commissioners and justices of the peace.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Fees for copies and certificates. SECTION 1. Section 696 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by striking out the words "and six cents per mile travel, and have," where they occur in said section; also amend said section by adding at the end thereof the following "and all such statements and certificates shall be transmitted to the county clerk by registered mail, and for so transmitting such statements and certificates such county judge, court commissioner or justice of the peace shall receive the sum of twelve cents," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 696. Every county judge, court commissioner and justice of the peace shall receive from the county treasurer twelve cents per folio for making statements and returns required by section 697, and twenty-five cents for making each certificate required by section 680, and all such statements and certificates shall be transmitted to the county clerk by registered mail, and for so transmitting such
