CHAPTER 322.

AN ACT to amend section 390 of the statutes of 1898, as amended by increasing the appropriations therein made, and to appropriate certain additional sums of money to the regents of the university of Wisconsin for the construction, furnishing and equipment of the new building, machine shops, foundry and laboratories of the college of engineering.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Annual state tax for university; amount of and how expended loans. SECTION 1. Section 390 of the statutes of 1898, as amended is hereby amended by increasing the appropriation to the university fund income by the additional sum of twenty-one thousand dollars, and by increasing the portions of such income to be applied annually to the uses of the college of agriculture, and the college of mechanics and engineering, so that said section as amended shall read as follows: Section 390. There shall be levied and collected annually, a state tax amounting to the sum of two hundred and eighty-nine thousand dollars, which amount when so levied and collected is annually appropriated to the university fund income, to be used as a part thereof for current or administration expenditures, and for the construction in the order of the greatest need therefor, of such additional buildings and works and the enlargement and repair of buildings and works as in the judgment of the regents shall be absolutely required, and can be completed within the appropriations so made; provided, that forty thousand dollars of the said annual appropriation shall be applied annually to the uses of the college of agriculture; also that twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars thereof shall be applied annually to the uses of the college of mechanics and engineering; also that thirty-five hundred dollars thereof shall be applied annually to the uses of the new school of commerce; also that two thousand dollars thereof shall be applied annually to the uses of the summer school of science, literature, language and pedagogy, in connection with the university, authorized by section 392a; also that one thousand dollars thereof shall annually be applied to the purchase of books for the use of the law library of the university; and, also, that thirteen thousand dollars of the said annual appropriation shall annually be applied and used in adding facilities for and establishing and maintaining courses of instruction in railway and electrical engineering in the university. The commissioners of public lands may direct the state treasurer from time to time to set apart by way of loan, to the fund known as the university fund income, for university uses, from uninvested moneys in the trust funds, for the period while so uninvested, such amount not exceeding at any time the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, as in their judgment shall be prudent, such loans to be repaid to the trust funds from the appropriation hereinbefore made to the university fund income, with interest at the rate then required, on deposits made pursuant to sections 160a to 160f inclusive.

Appropriation for agricultural building; approval of governor to plans and estimates. SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state out of any moneys, not otherwise appropriated, to the university fund income of the university of Wisconsin, for the construction, furnishing and equipment of an agricultural building, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and for the furnishing and equipment of the new building, machine shops, foundry and laboratories of the college of engineering, the sum of thirty thousand dollars; the said sums to be paid as soon as practicable after the collection of taxes, and said moneys to be expended in such manner and at such times for the purposes aforesaid as in the judgment of the regents shall seem best; provided, that no plan or plans shall be adopted, and no contract or contracts shall be entered into by the board of regents of the university of the state of Wisconsin for the construction of any building or other structure or thing specified in this act, until such plans and contracts, with estimates of the total cost thereof, shall have been submitted to, and in writing approved by the governor of the state, who shall withhold such approval until he shall satisfy himself by a personal examination of the same, and by such other means as he in his discretion, may adopt, that any such building, structure or thing can and will be erected and fully completed according to such plans or contracts for the sum of money not exceeding the amount hereby appropriated for such particular purpose.

Duty of secretary of state. SECTION 3. The secretary of state is hereby authorized and directed to include in the appropriate tax levies, sums sufficient to satisfy the annual appropriations hereby made.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 323.

AN ACT to provide for the collection of the reasonable and proper expenses of burial of any deceased person in a county asylum for the chronic insane, whose support is chargeable to any other county, or to the state of Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Superintendent to give notice of death; to bury remains, when.
SECTION 1. Whenever a patient in any county asylum for the chronic insane whose maintenance is chargeable to the state of Wisconsin, or to any other county, shall die, and if his relatives or friends will not make provision for his burial, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of such county asylum to give his remains a decent and proper burial. It shall be the duty of the
