CHAPTER 176.

AN ACT to appropriate money for the further prosecution of the geological and natural history survey of the state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Appropriation of $5,000 additional. SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated for the further prosecution of the geological and natural history survey of the state, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five thousand dollars annually, in addition to the sum now appropriated by law. This money shall be expended by the commissioners of said survey for the purpose of executing the duties assigned them by chapter 297 of the laws of 1897, and any other duties which may be assigned to them by the legislature, and especially for the investigation of the clays and clay industries and the completion of the survey of the lead region.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 6, 1903.
