CHAPTER 320.

AN ACT, to amend section 2 of chapter 393 of the laws of 1901, relating to elections.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Registration of voters in cities of first class. SECTION 1. Section 2 of chapter 393 of the laws of 1901 is hereby amended by adding to the end of said section the following: "Such inspectors shall hold their first meeting on Monday and the following Tuesday, four weeks preceding such elections. They shall meet at six o'clock in the forenoon and hold their meetings open until eight o'clock in the evening of each day during which they shall so sit. They shall hold their second meeting on the Monday preceding the Tuesday next preceding the election;" so that said section 2, when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 2. In all cities of the first class such inspectors shall make a new registry of electors for each municipal and general election, and no previous registry, or registry list, shall be copied or used in whole or in part in making the same, and no person's name shall be placed upon such registry unless the elector appear in person before the inspectors and request that his name be registered. Such inspectors shall hold their first meeting on Monday and the following Tuesday, four weeks preceding such election. They shall meet at six o'clock in the forenoon and hold their meetings open until eight o'clock in the evening of each day during which they shall so sit. They shall hold their second meeting on the Monday preceding the Tuesday next preceding the election.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 20, 1903.
