

No. 588, A.]

[Published May 24, 1905.]

CHAPTER 231.

AN ACT to add four new sections to chapter 27, of the statutes of 1898, to be designated and numbered 458-i, 458-j, 458-k, and 458-l, relating to teachers certificates.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Four new sections to be known as sections 458-i, 458-j, 458-k, and 458-l are hereby added to and made a part of chapter 27, of the statutes of 1898, reading as follows:

Countersigning diplomas; state certificates. Section 458-i. The state superintendent is authorized and empowered to countersign diplomas and issue state certificates to persons who are engaged in supervising work in the public schools or teaching in colleges or normal schools, otherwise legally qualified under existing statutes or are recommended by the state board of examiners.

Special license. Section 458-j. The state superintendent may issue a special license good only until the next meeting of the state board of examiners in cases where the applicant gives satisfactory evidence that his qualifications and credentials shall meet the requirements of the board of examiners; said temporary license to be issued only in urgent cases and in order that the school board, or board of education may be legally authorized to pay the salary of said teacher from the funds of the district for services rendered.

Special certificate. Section 458-k. The state superintendent may upon the recommendation of the state board of examiners, grant a special certificate legally qualifying the holder to teach such special branch or branches in the public schools as may be named on the face of the certificate.

Limited special certificate. Section 458-l. Upon the recommendation of the state board of examiners an applicant may be granted a limited special certificate qualifying him to teach not more than one special branch in the public schools, said certificate being limited to one particular school or district to be named in the certificate, said certificate to be null and void in any other school or district.

Conflicting laws repealed. SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 22, 1905.

No. 615, A.]

[Published May 24, 1905.

CHAPTER 232.

AN ACT relating to the allowance of the accounts of executors and administrators.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Payment of claims not filed or allowed against estate. SECTION 1. There is hereby created and added to the statutes of 1898 a new section to be known and to read as follows: Section 3030a. In all cases where an executor or administrator shall or may have paid in good faith any debts or claims against the estate which he represents, without the same having been duly filed, approved or allowed as required by law and his final account has not yet been settled, such payments may be allowed by the court having jurisdiction of the matter, upon proof satisfactory to said court, that said debts or claims were just and existing demands against said estate at the time of payment and were paid within the time limited by law for the presentation of claims. Provided, that the notice of the application for the allowance of such final account shall state that application will be made for such allowance and such notice shall be served personally or by mail upon all heirs or legatees who are of age and upon the guardian ad litem of all minors or incompetent persons interested in such estate at least twenty days before the day of hearing. Provided, that no payments shall be allowed except on a pro rata basis with other claims when the estate is insolvent.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 22, 1905.