CHAPTER 118.

AN ACT to create section 4977m of the statutes of 1898, relating to the numbering of sections of the statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes of 1898 a new section to read as follows:

* * * * *

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 21, 1907.

Annual village election. SECTION 875. At the annual charter election in each village there shall be chosen the following officers, viz: A president, six trustees, a clerk, a treasurer, * * * an assessor and a constable; also two justices of the peace and a police justice, if required to be elected in such year, unless such last named office shall have been discontinued, and a supervisor except in counties having a population of at least two hundred and fifty thousand. All other officers of villages organized under the provisions of this chapter or any general law shall be appointed by the village board at their first meeting after the annual election unless such board shall otherwise provide; and such officers shall be removable by such board on a vote of a majority of all the trustees. No person not a resident elector in such village shall be eligible to any office therein. The village clerk may appoint a deputy clerk for whom he shall be responsible, and who shall take and file the oath of office, and in case of the absence, sickness or other disability of the clerk may perform his duties and receive the same compensation unless the village board shall appoint a person to act as such clerk.

(Ch. 398, 1907.)

Repeal. * * * Section 883 of the statutes is hereby repealed.

(Ch. 398, 1907.)

Village prisoners to work out fines. SECTION 893. (892)—27m. To compel any person committed to the watch-house or place of confinement of the village who is not physically disabled, to perform labor upon any public work of said village under such supervision and control as such village may provide, and for each day's labor performed, said person so sentenced shall be credited with the sum of two dollars, which shall apply on such fine and costs until the same are paid or until such person is released from custody.

(Ch. 117, 1907.)
