

taining the list of jurors selected from the county at large. The clerk shall issue one venire containing the names of jurors so drawn, returnable at the time set for the trial of the case, which venire shall be delivered to the sheriff and the sheriff shall proceed to summon the jurors.

Juries: drawings, return to box, pay and mileage.

SECTION 4. Section 14, chapter 295, laws of 1905, is amended to read: Section 14. * * * When the case is called for trial the jury shall be empaneled under the provisions of law applicable to jury trials in circuit court. In case the venire shall become exhausted before a jury is secured the clerk shall draw such additional names as the court shall direct from the same box the jurors were drawn from, which names shall be added to the venire and the jurors summoned accordingly. When the jury has been secured, the clerk shall return to the jury box the names of all qualified jurors not on the trial panel, and the names of jurors that serve and those found to be exempt from jury service shall not be returned to the jury box until again certified by the jury commissioners. Jurors and officers shall receive the same pay as in circuit court for like services and be paid in like manner. Jurors that appear and fail to serve shall be allowed their necessary mileage and for one-half day attendance.

Approved June 20, 1907.

(In effect July 1, 1907.)

Slaughtered animals: appraisal; market value maximum.

SECTION 1492b. 1. Whenever the owner shall not exercise the option mentioned in the preceding section and it shall be deemed necessary by the board to slaughter diseased animals, written notice shall be given to the owner, his agent or the person in charge of such animals, and to a justice of the peace in the county in which the animals may be, of the purpose to order the slaughter thereof, giving the number and description of the animals, and the name of the owner.

2. Such notice shall be entered on the docket of such justice who shall immediately thereafter summon such owner, agent or possessor, and also three disinterested citizens of the county not residents of the immediate neighborhood in which such animals are owned or kept, to appraise the value thereof. Such appraisers shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, be sworn by such justice to make a true appraisal without prejudice or favor, of the value of such animals, and if such slaughter is made on the premises where said animals are kept, they shall certify in their return that they have seen the appraised animals slaughtered.

3. In making the appraisal of diseased animals the appraisers shall determine their value in the condition in which they are found at the time of the appraisal; but the appraised value of no single animal shall exceed * * * the actual market value thereof at the time of such appraisal and in no case shall it exceed fifty dollars.

4. In case of bovine tuberculosis if it shall be deemed advisable by the live stock sanitary board, such appraised animals shall be shipped at the expense of the state and under the direction and control of the board to some abattoir to be designated by the board for immediate slaughter under United States government inspection. A report of such slaughter must be submitted to the secretary of the sanitary board by a member of the live stock sanitary board. * * *

5. The proceeds of any such sale together with an account thereof and all disbursements made in connection with such shipment shall be returned to the secretary of the board and such net proceeds be by the secretary immediately transferred to the secretary of state who in turn shall pay the same to the state treasurer.

6. If any such appraised animals * * * be slaughtered on the premises such slaughter shall be made under the direction of local health officer or the chairman of the town board, or the state veterinarian, or his assistant, or any member of the state live stock sanitary board.

7. The owner of slaughtered animals shall receive no compensation for the same, unless said sanitary board is satisfied that the infected premises have been disinfected in such manner as to prevent the further spread of the disease.

(Ch. 273, 1907.)

Veterinary examiners: board created. SECTION 1492e—

1. A board of veterinary examiners, to consist of three persons, is hereby created to carry out the provisions of this act.

(Ch. 334, 1907.)

Membership. SECTION 1492e—2. Said board shall be appointed by the governor and shall consist of practicing veterinarians of the state, at least two of which shall be veterinarian graduates.

(Ch. 334, 1907.)

Term and oath. SECTION 1492e—3. Each member of the board shall serve for a term of two years and until his successor is appointed and qualified, except in the case of the first board, whose members shall serve one, two and three years respectively and shall take the oath provided for public officers.

(Ch. 334, 1907.)

Vacancies. SECTION 1492e—4. Vacancies in such board shall be filled by the governor for the unexpired portion of the term.

(Ch. 334, 1907.)

Officers. SECTION 1492e—5. The officers of the board shall consist of a president and secretary who shall be chosen from the members thereof.

(Ch. 334, 1907.)

Meetings, quorum, minutes. SECTION 1492e—6. One meeting of the board shall be held in the month of June each year at such a place as shall be fixed. Other meetings may be called by the board as they may determine. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum. The secretary's record of the proceedings of the board shall be open for public inspection.
