CHAPTER 424.

AN ACT to confer additional jurisdiction on the county court of Florence county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Jurisdiction: civil and criminal. SECTION 1. There is hereby conferred upon the county court of Florence county, jurisdiction as follows:

1. The county court of the county of Florence shall have cognizance of and jurisdiction to hear, try and determine, all actions and proceedings at law wherein the amount of debt, damages, penalty or forfeiture shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars; actions to recover the possession of personal property with damages for the unlawful taking or detention thereof, wherein the value of the property claimed shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and all charges for offenses arising within said county and which are not punishable by commitment to the state prison; and the judge of said county court shall have power to sentence and commit all persons convicted of any offense of which said court has jurisdiction.

Said court shall have power and jurisdiction throughout said county to cause to come before it persons who are charged with any criminal offense and commit them to jail or bind them over to the circuit court as the case may require. The judge of said court shall further have all the jurisdiction, authority, powers and right given by law to justices of the peace and shall be subject to the same prohibitions and penalties as justices of the
