CHAPTER 387.

AN ACT to create section 959p of the statutes, relating to the sprinkling of streets.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 959p. 1. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the common council of any city of the second, third or fourth class, signed by the owners of more than one-half of the land abutting on any street in any block or number of blocks, praying that such part of said street be sprinkled during a specified time, said common council shall cause such street or part of such street to be sprinkled as prayed for. Whenever the common council shall so decide it may, without petition, cause any street or portion of a street, which shall have been permanently improved and paved with a permanent pavement, to be sprinkled during such period as it may order. The board of public works, or the person or body performing the duties of such board shall keep an accurate account of the cost of such sprinkling and shall on or before the first Monday of November present to the common council a complete and accurate statement of the cost of all sprinkling done during the preceding summer, and shall state the cost to each block separately.

2. The cost of any sprinkling done shall be paid out of the general fund or out of the ward funds or be assessed against the abutting property as the common council shall decide. In case the council shall order the cost of such sprinkling or any part thereof, to be assessed against abutting property such cost of sprinkling shall be charged and collected as a tax in the next tax roll against the lands abutting on the part of the street sprinkled in proportion to frontage of each parcel of land abutting upon such street. The cost of such sprinkling shall in the first instance be paid out of the general fund, which fund shall be reimbursed by the assessments collected therefor.

3. All contracts entered into by said city for the sprinkling of streets shall be let to the lowest bidder in accordance with the charter of such city and the statutes of the state; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting the doing of such sprinkling by such city under the direction of one of its own departments, where such methods of contracting or doing the work are now authorized by statute or by the charter of any such city.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 388.

AN ACT to amend section 892 (891) of the statutes, relating to the publication of the official notices in villages.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 892 (891) of the statutes is amended to read: Section 892 (891). 1. Every contract, conveyance, commission, license or other written instrument shall be executed on the part of the village by the president and clerk, sealed with the corporate seal, and in pursuance only of authority therefor from the village board. All ordinances and by-laws shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the clerk: and if any penalty or forfeiture is thereby, in any event, imposed shall, before taking effect, be published one week at least in some newspaper printed in the village and if there be no newspaper printed in such village the village board may designate a newspaper having a general cir-
