

shall apportion and district anew the members of the Senate and Assembly, according to the number of inhabitants, excluding Indians not taxed, soldiers, and officers of the United States Army and Navy."

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring. That the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin be and the same is agreed to by this legislature.

---

[No. 85, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 56.

To provide for a joint committee of the legislature to investigate the subject of supervision and inspection of schools.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That bill No. 720, A., go over until the special session of the legislature to be held in January, 1910, and that the same be referred to a joint committee of three senators and five assemblymen to be appointed in the same manner and under the same conditions as the other special committees; that to the same committee be also referred all other bills now before the legislature and relating to the supervision and inspection of schools; that the same committee is also empowered to investigate and report upon the advisability of reorganizing the educational system of the state and placing the state University, the normal schools, the high schools, and all other public schools, and the state superintendent's department under the general supervision of one board or commission; and that the governor be requested to include these subjects in the call for a special session.

---

[No. 86, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 57.

Relating to a statue of a Union soldier of the Civil War to be included in the plans for the decoration of the new capitol building or in the designs or statues to be placed in the interior thereof.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the capitol commission be and are hereby directed, by and with the advice of the Commander of the Wisconsin Department of