CHAPTER 126.

AN ACT to amend chapter 234, of the laws of 1907, as amended by chapter 123, of the laws of 1909, conferring civil and criminal jurisdiction on the county court of Walworth county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10, of chapter 234, of the laws of 1907, is amended to read: Section 10. There shall be held at the county seat of said county ten general terms, a term on the second Monday of each of the following months, to-wit: January, February, March, April, May, September, October, November and December, and a term on the last Monday of June * * * of each year; special terms of said court may be called and held by order of the judge of said court, a copy of which order shall be mailed at least fifteen days before such special term to each of the practicing attorneys of said county. All such special terms of said court shall be held at the county seat of Walworth county aforesaid. After an action or proceeding commenced or pending in said court has been noticed and placed on the calendar it shall not be necessary for either party to notice the same for trial at any subsequent term, but the clerk shall place the same on the calendar according to the nature and date of the issue or issues then or thereafter formed therein until it shall be tried or otherwise finally disposed of. Any trial, hearing, argument or assessment which shall have been commenced during any term, but shall not have been concluded before the commencement of any subsequent term, shall be continued and proceeded with at any subsequent term in the manner and with like effect as though it had been commenced at such subsequent term.

SECTION 2. Subdivisions 3 and 4, of section 23, of chapter 234, laws of 1907, as amended by chapter 123, laws of 1909, are amended to read: Section 23. 3. Said judge shall fix the compensation of such reporter not to exceed * * * ten dollars for each day, and * * * five dollars for each one half day's attendance, which shall be in full compensation for services and for making transcripts from shorthand notes, as may be required by said judge; but, in lieu of the salary herein provided, the county board of said county of Walworth may, in its discretion, from time to time, fix the salary of the phonographic reporter of said court, which salary shall be paid at the end of each month. During the time the assistant phonographic reporter shall perform the duties of the phonographic reporter, he shall receive the compensation provided by law for the phonographic reporter, the same to be deducted from the salary of the phonographic reporter.

4. Said reporter and assistant reporter shall furnish parties to an action, or their attorneys, requiring them, transcripts of the testimony and proceedings had at a price not to exceed five cents per folio. * * * Until otherwise fixed by the county board, the per diem compensation of said reporter and assistant reporter shall be paid out of the treasury of the county of Walworth upon the order of the judge.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 10, 1911.
