CHAPTER 162.

AN ACT to appropriate to A. H. Dahl, state treasurer, a sum of money therein named to reimburse him for money paid out by him as state treasurer, and to validate certain payments made by the state treasurer for clerk hire.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the general fund of the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of six hundred thirty-three and 39-100 dollars to A. H. Dahl, to reimburse him for money paid out by him as state treasurer for attorneys' fees and costs in the case of Irving P. Leigh, plaintiff, v. Andrew H. Dahl, state treasurer, defendant; and in the case of A. H. Wagner, plaintiff, v. A. H. Dahl, state treasurer, defendant, and other disbursements not otherwise provided for by statute.

SECTION 2. The payments of money heretofore made by Andrew H. Dahl, state treasurer, to William Pugh for services as clerk in the office of the state treasurer are hereby validated and approved.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 17, 1911.

CHAPTER 163.

AN ACT to authorize the Wisconsin-Vicksburg Monument Commission to use the unexpended balances in funds appropriated to said commission to defray the expense of dedicating the Wisconsin monument at Vicksburg, and to provide for the printing of the report of said commission.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Wisconsin-Vicksburg Monument Commission is authorized to expend as much as is necessary not to exceed three thousand dollars of the unexpended balances in the funds appropriated to said commission by chapter 281, laws of 1901, chapter 304, laws of 1903, and chapter 541, laws of 1907, to defray the expense of dedicating the Wisconsin monument at Vicksburg. Any moneys remaining in any of said funds after defraying the expense of dedicating said monument shall be paid into the general fund.
