CHAPTER 196.

AN ACT to repeal subsections 1, 2, 3 and 4, of section 2586, of the statutes, and to create three new subsections to be designated (2586) 1, (2586) 2, (2586) 3, relating to admission to the bar.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsections 1, 2, 3 and 4, of section 2586, of the statutes, are repealed.

SECTION 2. There are added to section 2586 of the statutes three new subsections to be designated and to read: Section 2586. 1. Any resident graduate of the law department of the University of Wisconsin shall be admitted to practice in all the courts of this state by the supreme court upon the production of his diploma, and may be so admitted when such court is not in session, by one of the justices thereof upon the production of such diploma, by an order signed by such justice and filed with the clerk of said court.

2. Every person of full age, who is a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state, of good moral character and otherwise qualified, shall be admitted to practice in all the courts of this state, by the supreme court, upon the production of the certificate of the board of law examiners of this state, signed by the president and secretary of the said board, and may be so admitted when such court is not in session, by one of the justices thereof upon the production of such certificate, by an order signed by such justice and filed with the clerk of said court.

3. Any person of full age, who shall have been admitted to practice in the court of last resort of any other state or territory, and who shall have become a resident of this state, and is of good moral character, may be admitted to practice in the courts of this state by the supreme court, upon filing with the clerk of the supreme court his written application therefor, and the certificate of his admission to practice in such court of last resort, in such other state or territory, and satisfactory proof that he is of good moral character, and has been engaged in actual practice in such other state or territory for five years, within the last eight years prior to filing his application. The certificate of the judge of any court of record in such other state or territory, before whom such applicant has practiced, under the seal of such court, shall be deemed sufficient proof of such practice in such state or territory.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
