CHAPTER 21.

AN ACT to cede jurisdiction over a tract of land near Sparta, in Monroe county, for military purposes.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The consent of the legislature is hereby given to the purchase or reservation by the United States of certain lands situated in townships 17 and 18 north, ranges 2 and 3 west, near Sparta, in Monroe county, Wisconsin, forming one tract having an aggregate area of 14,111 acres, for the purpose of a target and maneuver range; and jurisdiction is hereby ceded thereover, for military purposes, as contemplated by the Seventeenth Clause of Section Eight of Article One of the Constitution of the United States, upon condition that the consent hereby given and the jurisdiction hereby ceded shall not vest until a plan and description of said tract shall have been made by an authorized officer of the United States and filed in the office of the Secretary of State; and upon the further condition that the State shall forever retain a concurrent jurisdiction over the said tract to the extent that all legal and military process issued under authority of the state may be executed anywhere thereon to the same extent as if such consent and jurisdiction had not been given and ceded to the United States.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT to authorize the city of Marinette, in conjunction with the city of Menominee, Michigan, to construct and maintain a bridge across the Menominee river.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The city of Marinette, Wisconsin, in conjunction with the city of Menominee, Michigan, is authorized, at the joint expense of said cities, to construct and maintain a foot and wagon bridge and approaches thereto over and across the Menominee river from the foot of Hattie street, in the city of Marinette, Wisconsin, to a point in the city of Menominee, Michigan, on the Michigan shore of the Menominee river, immediately east of the west line of section 3, township 31 north, range 27 west, of the principal meridian of Michigan.

SECTION 2. Said bridge shall be constructed so as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of sawlogs and rafts through and by the same, and so as not to materially interfere with the navigation of said river.

SECTION 3. Previous to the building of said bridge, highways leading thereto shall be laid out and opened so that access thereto may be had from the main traveled streets in said cities, and authority and permission to build such bridge, from the owner or owners of the land to which said bridge shall be attached and over which the same shall pass, shall be obtained.

SECTION 4. The manner of raising money for the construction of such bridge and maintaining the same shall be the same as is now provided by law for building and maintaining bridges by municipalities of this state.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 24, 1911.

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT to amend section 886 (885) of the statutes, relating to jurisdiction of justices of the peace in villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 886 (885) of the statutes is amended to read: Section 886 (885). The justice of the peace shall, within ten days after his election, take and subscribe the oath of office and file the same with the clerk of the circuit court, and also execute and file with such clerk a bond in similar form to that required of justices elected by towns. He shall hold his office for two years from the time of his election and until his successor is elected and qualified, and when a vacancy occurs it shall be filled at the next annual charter election. In case of a vacancy a temporary appointment, until filled by election, may be made by the village board. He shall have concurrent jurisdiction and powers throughout the county with other justices of the peace; and whenever there shall be no police justice in such village he shall have * * * exclusive jurisdiction of all cases arising under the ordinances and by-laws of such village, and all the powers given herein to the police justice, and be taken as included within that designation herein.
