CHAPTER 91.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the town of Iron River in the county of Bayfield, and create therefrom the town of Tripp, and to provide for holding town meetings therein.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that certain territory in the town of Iron River in the county of Bayfield in the state of Wisconsin, described as follows, to-wit: All of township number forty-eight north, range number eight west, and now forming a part of the town of Iron River, is hereby set off and detached from the town of Iron River in said county, and is duly created and organized as a separate town to be known and designated as the town of Tripp in said Bayfield county.

SECTION 2. The said town of Tripp is created and organized with all the rights, powers, and privileges conferred upon and granted to other towns in the state of Wisconsin, and shall be subject to all the town laws enacted for town government therein.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of the town of Tripp shall meet at the dwelling house of Winfield E. Tripp, situated on the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 21, township forty-eight north of range 8 west, in Bayfield county, on the third Tuesday of May, 1911, and shall in the manner provided by law elect town officers for said town, and perform all other powers and make such provision for the town government as are now authorized by statute to be made by town meetings in any town.

SECTION 4. The qualified electors of said town of Tripp shall at such town meeting held as provided by section 3 of this act, in the manner provided by law, elect town officers for the said town of Tripp, and, for the purpose of such election, the qualified electors of the said town of Tripp shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock in the forenoon, of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election; and such inspectors shall, before entering upon their respective duties, severally take and subscribe the usual oath of office and file the same with their reports, and such inspectors shall respectively canvass and return the votes cast at such election, in all respects as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings. A town clerk and also all necessary clerks of election shall be appointed by said inspectors, or a majority thereof, to assist said inspectors in conducting said town meetings, and in canvassing and returning the votes cast at such election; and the qualified voters so assembled at the place aforesaid may vote for judicial officers, and all other officers to be elected on that day, and such votes shall be counted, canvassed, and returned in the same manner and shall have the same effect as if the said town of Tripp were fully and completely organized.

SECTION 5. When said town meeting shall be held as herein provided and the town officers required by law duly elected, the said town of Tripp shall be deemed to be and shall be duly organized and shall be subject to all the liabilities and shall enjoy all the powers and privileges of other towns in the state of Wisconsin; and the officers of said town of Tripp shall make the assessments of the property in said town as of the 1st day of May, 1911; and said town shall have the same powers in regard to assessment and taxation of property as if duly organized on the same day of holding the annual town meeting for the year 1911 in the towns of this state: and after said first town meeting all annual town meetings shall be held on the day provided by law for the holding of town meetings in other towns in the state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 6. A notice of said first meeting shall be given by the posting of a copy of this act in at least five public places in said new town of Tripp at least five days before the time of holding said first town meeting by any duly qualified elector of said new town, who shall make the proper affidavit of said posting and file the same on the day of the first town meeting with the inspectors chosen at said town meeting to conduct the same.

SECTION 7. The credits and liabilities, as between the town of Tripp hereby created and the town of Iron River, shall be apportioned upon the basis prescribed in section 672 of the statutes in the manner hereinafter provided.

SECTION 8. On or before the 1st day of June, 1911, the supervisors of the town of Tripp and the town of Iron River shall each elect one disinterested person, who shall be non-residents of the towns, as arbitrators to represent said boards in the apportionment of assets and liabilities between said towns, and these two arbitrators so selected shall, before the 15th day of June, 1911, select a third person, who shall likewise be disinterested and a non-resident of either town, and who shall be the third arbitrator. The three arbitrators so appointed shall meet in the office of the town clerk of the town of Iron River on or before the first day of July, 1911, and make an apportionment of all credits and liabilities of each town in accordance with the provisions of this act. Five days' notice in writing of the meeting of arbitrators shall be served on the town clerks of the respective towns by said arbitrators.

SECTION 9. The electors of the said town of Tripp assembled at the place aforesaid shall have the power by vote to determine upon the adoption of the township system of schools or school district system, and shall have power to make any assessment levied by law for school purposes, irrespective of the recommendations hereinbefore made by the school authorities of the present town of Iron River.

SECTION 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
