JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 48.

To amend article XI of the constitution by adding thereto a new section to be known as section 3a, relating to the acquisition of lands by the state or any of its cities for certain public purposes.

WHEREAS, At the biennial session of the Legislature for the year 1909, an amendment to the Constitution was proposed and agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, which proposed amendment is as follows:

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That article XI of the Constitution be amended by adding a new section thereto, to be known as section 3a to read:

Section 3a. The State or any of its cities may acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation lands for establishing, laying out, widening, enlarging, extending, and maintaining memorial grounds, streets, squares, parkways, boulevards, parks, playgrounds, sites for public buildings, and reservations in and about and along and leading to any or all of the same; and after the establishment, layout, and completion of such improvements, may convey any such real estate thus acquired and not necessary for such improvements, with reservations concerning the future use and occupation of such real estate, so as to protect such public works and improvements and their environs, and to preserve the view, appearance, light, air, and usefulness of such public works"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin be, and the same is hereby, agreed to by this Legislature.

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 49.

Relating to the claim of the state against former insurance commissioners, demanding information of the attorney general in regard to the status of action brought and the reason for the failure to bring to trial an action determining all the questions involved in the claim of the state against insurance commissioners, as required by joint resolution No. 109, A., adopted at the last session of the legislature.

WHEREAS, At the session of the legislature of 1909, joint resolution No. 109, A., was adopted by both houses of the legislature and directed: "That the attorney general be, and is hereby, instructed to forthwith begin and prosecute actions against the present and all former insurance commissioners and the sureties on their official bonds, receiving any fees or compensation in addition to the salary provided by law; and that at least one of said actions, involving all questions including the right to the retention of the fees for valuation of policies, be brought to trial at the earliest possible time; and that the attorney general file a report of his action pursuant to this resolution with the governor prior to the holding of any special session requested in resolutions heretofore adopted."

WHEREAS, No report has been filed by the attorney general with the governor, and notwithstanding the two years have elapsed, no action has been brought to trial, though actions have been begun against such commissioners; and

WHEREAS, The questions involved in the claims against the former commissioners should and ought to be speedily determined and any sums due the state promptly collected;

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the attorney general is hereby instructed to forthwith make a report to the legislature of the action taken and the proceedings had pursuant to the resolutions adopted at the foregoing session, and to forthwith bring to trial, as provided in said resolution.
