CHAPTER 178.

AN ACT to create subsection 5 of section 1379—30 of the statutes, relating to drainage districts.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to section 1379—30 of the statutes a new subsection to read: (Section 1379—30) 5. All hearings before the court or presiding judge thereof, heretofore had in any county other than the county in which the files and records of said drainage district are filed and kept, shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court; and any order or judgment made pursuant to said hearing in a county other than where the files and records are filed and kept shall be of full force and effect, unless objected to in writing or in open court, and said objection filed, when the court shall adjourn said hearing to be heard at the county where said files and records are filed and kept. Whenever such order shall have been had in a county other than where said files and records are kept, the said judgment or order shall have the same force and effect as though it had been heard and judgment and order made in the county where the files and records of said drainage district are filed and kept.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are repealed or modified.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 3, 1913.
