CHAPTER 261,

AN ACT to create subsection 3a of section 28 of chapter 549, of the laws of 1909, relating to change of venue of actions commenced in the civil court of Milwaukee county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to section 28 of chapter 549 of the laws of 1909 a new subsection to read: (Section 28, chapter 549, laws of 1909.) 3a. On any appeal from said civil court to the circuit court of Milwaukee county, the defendant or defendants, if they be all nonresidents of the county of Milwaukee and reside in some other county of the state of Wisconsin, may upon motion at the first term at which such appeal action shall be for trial, apply for and have a change of the place of trial to the county of the said defendant's residence, upon application in like manner and for like causes as cases originally brought in the circuit court and as provided in like cases in appeals from justice court by section 2624 of the statutes; and upon such change of venue the circuit court of the county where the defendant resides shall have jurisdiction of such action the same as on appeal from justice court, and there shall be a trial de novo in the same cases and under the same provisions of law as in cases of appeals from justice courts.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
