CHAPTER 308.

AN ACT to amend section 1416—6 of the statutes, relating to infectious diseases.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1416—6 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1416—6. 1. It shall be the duty of every person afflicted with tuberculosis of the lungs or larynx, or any other disease whose virus or infecting agent is contained in the sputum, saliva or other infectious secretions, to provide himself with a sputum flask or receptacle in which to deposit his sputum, saliva, or other infectious secretion * * * , and the contents of said flask or receptacle shall be burned or otherwise thoroughly disinfected.

2. If any person afflicted with tuberculosis, as shown by the examinations made in the state laboratory of hygiene, fails or neglects to obey or comply with any of the provisions of this section, or of the rules adopted and published by the state board of health for the suppression and control of tuberculosis, such person may be committed to any county hospital for the care of persons suffering from tuberculosis or to any other place or institution where proper care will be provided and where the necessary precautions will be taken to prevent any unnecessary spread of tuberculosis, by any judge of a court of record upon due proof that such person has violated said law or said rules and regula- tions of said board of health. Complaint that said laws or the rules and regulations of said state board of health have been violated may be made by any health officer or any resident of any city, town or village in which any such person shall have violated said law or said rules and regulations, and when such complaint shall have been so made, it shall be the duty of the judge of said court to notify the person who, it is alleged, has so violated said law or said rules and regulations, that such complaint has been made. If, upon the hearing, it has been found that such person has so violated said law or said rules and regulations, the court may then make the order for commitment of such person in the manner provided in this section. The court may also make such order for the payment for care and treatment as may be proper.

3. After commitment, such person may be discharged by said court at any time when the court thinks it proper to do so. Any person so committed to such hospital or institution, who fails to remain there, or who neglects or refuses to obey the rules and regulations of that institution, may, in the judgment of the superintendent, be isolated or separated from other persons and restrained from leaving the hospital or other institution.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 309.

AN ACT to create a temporary commission to purchase land for park purposes at the site of the first Wisconsin territorial capitol at Belmont, and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The governor shall appoint three suitable persons to constitute a temporary commission to purchase not to exceed one acre of land at the site of the first Wisconsin territorial capitol building at Belmont. Said commission shall be known as the Belmont capitol commission and the members thereof shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed from the funds appropriated by this act their actual and necessary expenses incurred as members of said commission.

SECTION 2. The land purchased as provided in section 1 shall be used for park purposes in connection with the old capitol building and shall be improved for such purposes by the commission herein created.

SECTION 3. For the purposes of carrying out the provisions
