CHAPTER 357.

AN ACT to provide for the holding of terms of the circuit court in and for Sauk County.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Upon the request of the presiding judge of the Ninth judicial circuit, it shall be the duty of the presiding judge of the Seventeenth judicial circuit to attend upon and hold any term of court in Sauk county and in case of his inability so to do, to call in some other judge for such purposes, and the judge of said Seventeenth judicial circuit is hereby given the same power to call in such other judge as is now by law given to the presiding judge of said Ninth circuit. While in attendance upon such term, said judge of the Seventeenth circuit, or any judge called in by him, shall have and exercise all the powers and jurisdiction of the presiding judge of said Ninth judicial circuit.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the official phonographic reporter of the Seventeenth judicial circuit to attend upon and report the proceedings had in said Sauk county whenever the presiding judge of the Seventeenth judicial circuit shall be called in to preside over any term in Sauk county as above provided. The said judge and the said reporter of the Seventeenth judicial circuit shall be subject to the same provisions of law as to the payment of their compensation and expenses as if the said Sauk county was a part of the said Seventeenth judicial circuit.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
