CHAPTER 69.

AN ACT to amend section 1797—9 of the statutes, relating to union depots.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1797—9 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1797—9. 1. It shall be the duty of every railroad to provide and maintain adequate depots and depot buildings at its regular stations for the accommodation of passengers, and said depot buildings shall be kept clean, well-lighted and warmed, for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public. All railroads shall keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots, buildings, switches and sidetracks for the receiving, handling and delivering of freight transported or to be transported by such railroads; provided, that this shall not be construed as repealing any existing law on the subject.

(See c. 616.)

2. In every city, village or town in which two or more railroads enter and maintain passenger depots, it shall be the duty of such railroads to construct, maintain and use an adequate union passenger depot, whenever practicable and required by public convenience and necessity. If, after investigation, the commission shall determine that it is practicable and that public convenience and necessity require the construction, maintenance and use of a union passenger depot by two or more railroads, in any city, village or town, in which such railroads enter and maintain passenger depots, the commission may, after notice and hearing as provided in section 1797—12, order such railroads to construct, maintain and use an adequate union passenger depot, and shall also in such order fix the location of such depot. If the railroads shall be unable to agree upon an apportionment of the original cost of such union passenger depot, and the cost and expense of maintaining the same, within twenty days after the service of such order, the commission may, after a like hearing, issue a supplemental order declaring the apportionment of such original cost and the cost and expense of maintaining such depot.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 70.

AN ACT to create subdivision (18) of section 670 of the statutes, relating to the powers of county boards.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to section 670 of the statutes a new subdivision to read: (Section 670) (18) To appropriate to any school district in which a county farm or any part thereof is situated, an amount of money for school purposes equal to the amount that would be paid as school taxes upon such farm land or part thereof situated within such district if such land were privately owned. The valuation of such farm land shall be determined by the county board of equalization.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
