CHAPTER 25.

AN ACT to repeal sections 776a, 776b and 776c and to create section 776g of the statutes, relating to registration of farms, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 776a, 776b, and 776c of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 2. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 776g. 1. The owner of any farm or country estate, or his agent duly authorized therefor in writing, may register the name of such farm or estate in the office of the register of deeds of the county wherein the farm or estate is situated. Every register of deeds shall keep a registry book for such purpose, and upon request, shall make registrations therein as provided in this section. Registration shall consist in writing in the registry book the name of the owner of the farm or estate and such name for the farm or estate as the owner or agent may designate, if no other farm or estate in the county has been previously registered under the same name. The register of deeds shall charge and collect twenty-five cents for making such regis-
