

No. 737, A.]

[Published June 26, 1915.

CHAPTER 309.

AN ACT to create section 4560a—39 of the statutes, prohibiting the transportation or shipment of live carp or dogfish minnows, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 4560a—39. 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to ship or transport live carp or dogfish minnows within the state of Wisconsin.

2. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail until such fine is paid, not exceeding thirty days.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 23, 1915.

No. 740, A.]

[Published June 26, 1915.

CHAPTER 310.

AN ACT to create section 4565c—10 of the statutes, to provide for a permanent closed season for game and other certain animals in township thirty-eight north, range twelve east and township thirty-eight north, range thirteen east, Forest county, and providing penalties.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 4565c—10. 1. There is established a permanent closed season in township thirty-eight north, range twelve east and township thirty-eight north, range thirteen east, Forest county, to be known as the Forest county game refuge, for all game, birds, fowl and other animals included within and protected by sections 4562d, 4562e, 4563, 4565b—1 and 4565c—5 of the statutes. No person shall take, catch, kill, hunt or pursue any such game, birds, fowl or other animals within either of said two townships in any manner or at any time.

2. Any person who shall hunt or pursue any such game, birds, fowl or other animals within either of said two townships shall be punished by a fine of fifty dollars; or any person who shall take, catch or kill any deer in either of said two townships shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than sixty days nor more than three months; or any person who shall take, catch or kill any elk or moose in either of said two townships shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ninety days nor more than six months; or any person who shall take, catch or kill, within either of said two townships, any bird or fowl or other animal included within and protected by this section, for which offense no penalty is hereinbefore provided, shall be punished by a fine of twenty-five dollars for each such bird, fowl or other animal taken, caught or killed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 23, 1915.

No. 420, A.]

[Published June 26, 1915.

CHAPTER 311.

AN ACT to create paragraph (f) of subsection 2 of section 1958 of the statutes, prescribing the conditions and restrictions under which members may be separated into classes in fraternal benefit societies.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to subsection 2 of section 1958 of the statutes a new paragraph to read: (Section 1958. 2) (f) Any domestic fraternal benefit society authorized to transact business in this state may establish and maintain two or more separate classes of members subject to the conditions and restrictions following and to such as may be prescribed in its articles or by-laws. The proceeds of assessments, other than for expense purposes, and the apportioned funds or reserves maintained for each such class of members, shall be kept irrevocably separate and apart from other assets or funds of any other class of members or of the society, and all claims on certificates held by members in any class shall be paid only from funds belonging to such class; provided, that such transfer of gains from interest or investments, or of savings in mortality, or of gains from forfeitures may be made between classes of members as is authorized in the by-laws; and, provided further, that for the purpose of apportioning death losses to the various classes, the mortality may be merged as is authorized in the by-laws. Pur-