CHAPTER 425.

AN ACT to create section 959z of the statutes, authorizing all cities to pay persons who have performed the duties of certain offices therein while not the lawful incumbents of such positions.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 959z. Whenever, in any city, however incorporated, an attempt has heretofore been made by the proper officers, board or council thereof to remove any officer or employe of such city from his position, and such person has been subsequently, by decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, reinstated in such position, and, prior to such decision, another person has been appointed to such position in the manner provided by law and has qualified and performed the duties of such position, the council of such city may authorize and provide for the payment to the person last mentioned of an amount not to exceed the salary of such position for such time as such person performed the duties of such position.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
