CHAPTER 439.

AN ACT to create section 959—30o of the statutes, relating to interruptions in the service of public utilities.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 959—30o. No contractor having a contract for any work upon, over, along or under any public street or highway shall interfere with, destroy or disturb the structures of any public service corporation encountered in the performance of such work so as to interrupt, impair or affect the public service for which such structures may be used, without first procuring written authority from the commissioner of public works, or other properly constituted authority. It shall, however, be the duty of every public service corporation, whenever a temporary protection of, or temporary change in, its structures, located upon, over, along or under the surface of any public street or highway is deemed by the commissioner of public works, or other such duly constituted authority, to be reasonably necessary to enable the accomplishment of such work, to so temporarily protect or change its said structures; provided, that such contractor shall give at least two days' notice of such required temporary protection or temporary change to such corporation, and shall pay or assure to such corporation the reasonable cost thereof, except when such corporation is properly liable therefor under the law, but in all cases where such work is done by or for the state or by or for any county, city, village, or town, the cost of such temporary protection or temporary change shall be borne by such public service corporation.

SECTION 2. The provisions of this act shall not be construed as modifying or restricting the existing powers of any municipality or county over streets, avenues, alleys, or highways thereof, or as repealing or amending any provision of Chapter 608 of the laws of Wisconsin for 1913.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 440.

AN ACT to amend subdivision (10) of section 2024—77k of the statutes, relating to the power of trust companies.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subdivision (10) of section 2024—77k of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 2024—77k) (10). Any such corporation may, with the approval of the court having jurisdiction, but without profit to itself, transfer to trust estates * * * any mortgages or other securities owned by it which comply with the requirements of legal investments for trust funds under the statutes. The commissioner of banking shall at each examination of said corporation, examine all mortgages and other securities held by said corporation as assets of trust estates, excepting the trust estates where investment of trust funds is not required of the trustee, and for the purpose of such examination the commissioner shall possess all the power and authority conferred upon him by this chapter.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
